

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

AMAZON.COM, INC., a Delaware corporation; and AMAZON.COM
SERVICES LLC, a Delaware limited liability corporation,

Plaintiffs,

v.

Individuals and entities doing business as the Amazon Brand Registry Account DHUOG;
and DOES 1-10,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:23-cv-00484-JHC

ORDER

On July 10, 2023, the Court issued an order to show cause why it should not dismiss this action based on Plaintiffs' apparent failure to serve Defendants with a summons and a copy of Plaintiffs' compliant within the timeframe provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m). Dkt. # 10. In their response, Plaintiffs say that they "believe all Defendants are located abroad, and [that] Rule 4(m)'s 90-day deadline for service does not apply to service on foreign defendants." Dkt. # 11 at 1. Plaintiffs have adequately addressed the Court's concerns. Plaintiffs seek permission to submit a status report in 120 days so they may: (1) "move for permission to take expedited discovery from third-party service providers"; (2) "obtain third-

1 party discovery”; (3) “amend the pleadings based on the third-party discovery”; and (4) “move
2 for alternative service.” Id.

3 For good cause shown, Plaintiffs’ request to submit a status report in 120 days, by 4 November 22, 2023, is GRANTED. If Plaintiffs cannot comply with that deadline, however,
5 they must SHOW CAUSE by the same date why this action should not be dismissed based on 6 Plaintiffs’ failure to complete service in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4.

7 Dated this 25th day of July, 2023.
